Description

Amethyst is, perhaps, the best loved of all the quartz varieties. Its warm, purple glow is a favorite in home decorating, and it is widely used as a Feng Shui element. Amethyst's purple color is due to small amounts (about 40 parts per million) of iron impurities in the crystal structure of quartz. This high-quality Amethyst Cluster from Uruguay would make a great gift for someone special, or an interesting conversation piece when displayed on your desk. Each cluster is a fragment of an amethyst geode that was formed after volcanic activity in South America," and each is unique. Sizes and colors vary; you'll receive one that is approximately 2-1/4 to 2-1/2" long", " 1-1/2 to 2-1/4" wide", " and 3/4" thick.

Size: 5 x 5 x 1.9 cm.
